

Casement 2 Bar

Hinges

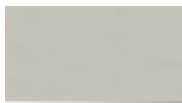

This high-performance casement 2 bar hinge was solution engineered to have impressive performance and weight carrying capabilities that will help window manufacturers with demanding new requirements. New energy specifications and requirements for increased window performance has necessitated the need for sashes to contain triple pane and or laminated glass. This combined with the move towards larger windows has pushed the envelope on what standard duty concealed casement hinges can handle.

AVAILABLE FINISHES

Stainless
Steel

EGard
Plus

PRODUCT HIGHLIGHTS

- Recommended for: composite, vinyl, and wood
- Low friction casement hinge for use on larger and heavier window
- Washable space between sash and side jamb
- Window hinges will be of slide and pivot design
- Stainless steel hinge and provide a snap-stud attachment