

Engineered Solutions. Trusted Results.

LOCKS

Manual Flush Bolt Sentry® Lever Activated

Designed to complement the Sentry multi-point door hardware system, the new manual shoot bolt has been engineered to secure the door panel at both the top and bottom with the flip of an easily accessible lever. This is one of the most versatile systems on the market and will help door manufacturers enhance their own product offering by producing the security and functionality the industry is looking for.